United World Wrestling International Wrestling Rules, article 31 “The Coach”:

Article 31 – The Coach

The coach may remain at the foot of the platform or at least two meters from the edge of the mat during the bout. If the UW doctor (or the competition doctor) allows him, he is authorized to assist the injury treatment of his wrestler. Except during this situation and during the break, it is strictly forbidden to the coach to step on the mat. In that case he can be sanctioned by the referee.

The coach is strictly forbidden to influence decisions or to influence decisions or to insult the refereeing body. He may only speak to the wrestler. The coach has the right to give water to his wrestler only during the break. It is prohibited for the wrestler to spit the water out. No other substance may be given during the pause or during the match.

It is the duty of the coach to wipe his wrestler during the break. At the end of the break, his/her wrestler might not sweat any more.

If these restrictions are not observed, the referee is obliged to ask the mat chairman to present the coach with a ‘Yellow’ card (caution); if he persists, the mat chairman will present him with a ‘Red’ card (elimination).

The mat chairman may also present the YELLOW or RED card on his own initiative.

As soon as the red card is given, the mat chairman reports to the competition director and the coach shall be eliminated from the competition and may no longer continue his duties. These facts also need to be reported on the scoresheet of the concerned bout. However, the wrestling team involved shall have the right to obtain the services of another coach. The National Federation of the eliminated coach will be penalized following the dispositions of the Disciplinary and Financial Regulations.

All coaches attending UWW sanctioned competitions are requested to accept the rules and regulations of United World Wrestling. All coaches attending UWW sanctioned competitions are requested to read, accept and abide by the UWW Code of Ethics.
